Disclosure

Your Duty of Disclosure

Before you enter into a life insurance contract, you have a duty to tell the insurer anything that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, which may affect their decision to insure you and on what terms. You have this duty until the insurer agrees to insure you. You have the same duty before you extend, vary or reinstate the contract.

You do not need to tell the insurer anything that:

- reduces the risk they insure you for; or
- is common knowledge; or
- they know or should know as an insurer; or
- they waive your duty to tell them about.

If you do not tell the insurer something

In exercising the following rights, the insurer may consider whether different types of cover can constitute separate contracts of life insurance. If they do, they may apply the following rights separately to each type of cover.

Disclosure (continued)

If you do not tell the insurer anything you are required to, and they would not have insured you if you had told them, they may avoid the contract within 3 years of entering into it.

If the insurer chooses not to avoid the contract, they may, at any time, reduce the amount you have been insured for. This would be worked out using a formula that takes into account the premium that would have been payable if you had told them everything you should have. However, if the contract has a surrender value, or provides cover on death, the insurer may only exercise this right within 3 years of entering into the contract.

If the insurer chooses not to avoid the contract or reduce the amount you have been insured for, they may, at any time vary the contract in a way that places them in the same position they would have been in if you had told them everything you should have. However, this right does not apply if the contract has a surrender value or provides cover on death.

If your failure to tell the insurer is fraudulent, they may refuse to pay a claim and treat the contract as if it never existed.

Step 4 – Declarations and signature

I understand and agree that:

- I will cancel all insurance cover with my former fund or insurer within 60 days of receiving confirmation of my successful transfer application.
- I will not be transferring the cover under my former fund to any other division or section of the former fund, or any other fund.
- I will not effect a continuation option or subsequently reinstate any cancelled cover within the former fund or any other division, section, category of the former fund or within any fund or insurance policy where such reinstatement of cover is available to me.
- I have read the duty of disclosure and am aware of the consequences of non-disclosure.
- I have read and understood the information in the current Product Disclosure Document and the Insurance Guide
- The duty of disclosure continues after I have completed this statement until my request has been accepted in writing by the insurer.
- I consent to my information being collected, disclosed and used in the manner set out in this form.
- I consent to my personal information (including health and sensitive information) being collected, used or disclosed by TAL Life Limited or its external service providers/contractors, including collecting it from or disclosing it to any medical practitioner or third party as required to assess, verify or process my application. This consent applies to any health and sensitive information TAL Life Limited collects on this form or future forms in relation to this insurance.

I declare that:

- The answers to all questions and the declarations on this form are true and correct (including those not in my own handwriting).
- I have not withheld any information which may affect any decision to provide insurance.

I acknowledge that:
